

The Under 35s Reinsurance Group Lectures 2018

“The Future of the Cyber Market”

Date: Wednesday 16th May, 2018

Time: 1:15pm to 2pm (please arrive promptly)

Location: Lloyd's Library

Lecture Title: The future of the cyber market

Lecture Speaker: Ian Newman - Head of Specialty and Cyber at Capsicum Re

Further Details: There are a number of foreseeable directions in which the cyber market may evolve in coming years. To stay relevant, (re)insurers will need to quickly adapt and innovate to tackle the cyber challenge. In this lecture, we explore one natural path in which the cyber market may progress, ultimately finishing in a market environment that consists of three main sectors, Property, Casualty, and Cyber(PC&C).
